This bill makes technical corrections and corrections in last years bill. It allows staff members to talk about evaluations and to recommend the parent get a professional opinion, but makes it illegal to require them to do so. The bill also requires boards to adopt a policy to give appropriate training and make violation a cause for disciplinary action.

G. No Fiscal Impact or Will Not Require Additional Appropriations?

Specify why this bill will have no fiscal impact on your agency or institution.

Specify how you will reallocate workloads, resources, or funding sources to eliminate need for additional appropriations. (USE ATTACHMENTS IF NECESSARY.)

The bill clarifies areas that were deemed to be unmanageable in last years bill. There are no new areas which would cause districts or charter schools to expend funds not already in use.

H. If Bill Carries It's Own Appropriation:

Indicate if the amount appropriated is adequate to meet the purposes of the bill.

Are there future additional costs anticipated beyond the appopriation in the bill?

I. Impact on Local Governments, Businesses, Associations, and Individuals

Specify requirements in the bill that drive the impact on local governments.

Indicate costs or savings that are DIRECT and MEASURABLE. If direct and measurable data are not available, are there areas that potentially could have a fiscal impact? (USE ATTACHMENT IF NECESSARY.)

Local School Districts/Charter Schools :

Businesses and Associations :

Individuals :

Narrative Description of Bill : This bill makes corrections in last years bill on medical recommendations. The bill would allow qualified employees to discuss with parents behavior and they may suggest a professional evaluation but not require them. This bill removes some of the more odious elements of last years bill.

This is a draft fiscal note response from the Utah State Office of Education (USOE) and may be revised in the future.
